WORKSHOP MOST PARENTS WANT TO BE INVOLVED

Tanja & Sharon
Mechelen & Leiden (SOL)

16th of November 2022

It takes a village to raise a child

Join us!

What we try to achieve today

- Share experiences working with parents within the VRAC project
- Look positively at parents and believe in a partnership with parents
- Share theories / points of view on building a good partnership with parents as professionals
- Share good practice, be inspired and share recommendations with others

SOL – Leiden - NL

- SOL – Youth organisation in Leiden
- 6 Different districts
- Connection between youth, parents, schools and other partners

Netsterk – Mechelen - BE

- Netsterk in Mechelen
 - Support for (vulnerable) parents aiming to enhance the opportunities of their children in education – (based upon wraparound care)
 - Single point of contact for professionals – (based upon new authority)
 - Trajectories developed to enhance parental involvement in a school setting – e.g. sterk(h)ouders

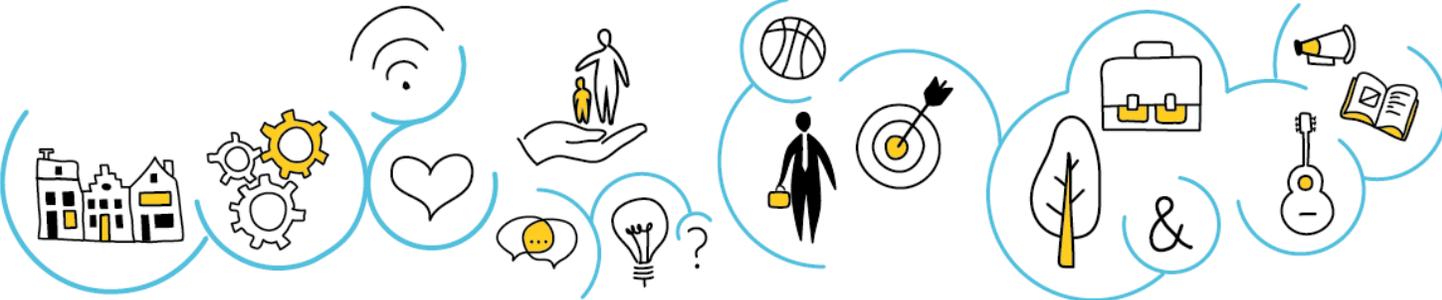

Our experiences so far...

MOST PARENTS WANT TO BE INVOLVED

MOST PARENTS...

ARE CURIOUS

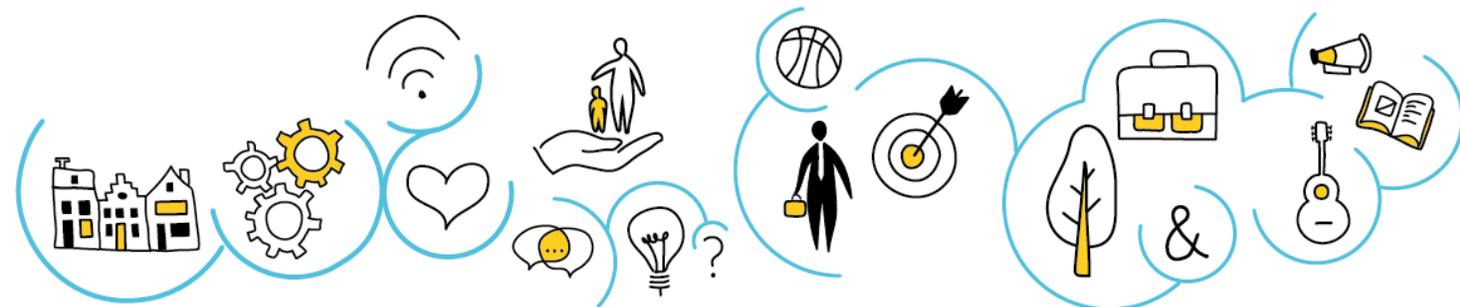

MOST PARENTS ...

WANT TO MEET EXPECTATIONS

MOST PARENTS...

WANT YOU TO TAKE GOOD CARE OF THEIR CHILDREN

MOST PARENTS ...

ARE LOYAL TO THEIR CHILDREN

MOST PARENTS...

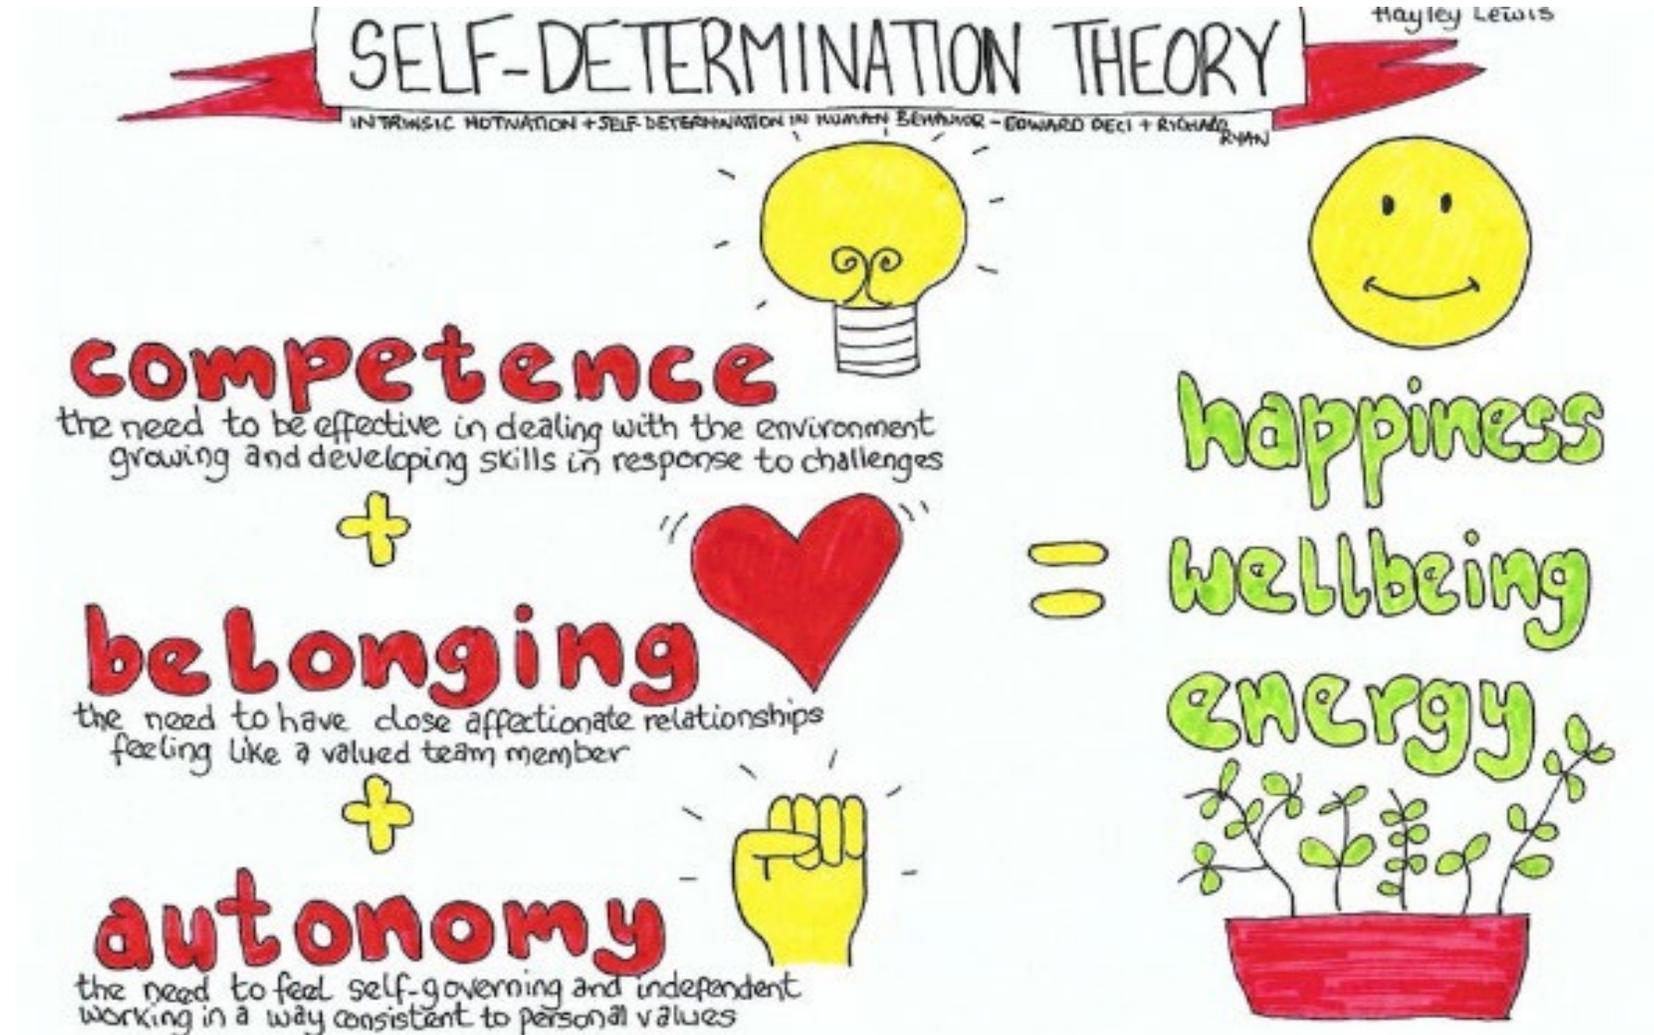

WANT TO BE INVOLVED

Move from parental involvement to partnership with parents.

Let's try to increase their intrinsic motivation.

Self-determination theory – Deci & Ryan

EXERCISE

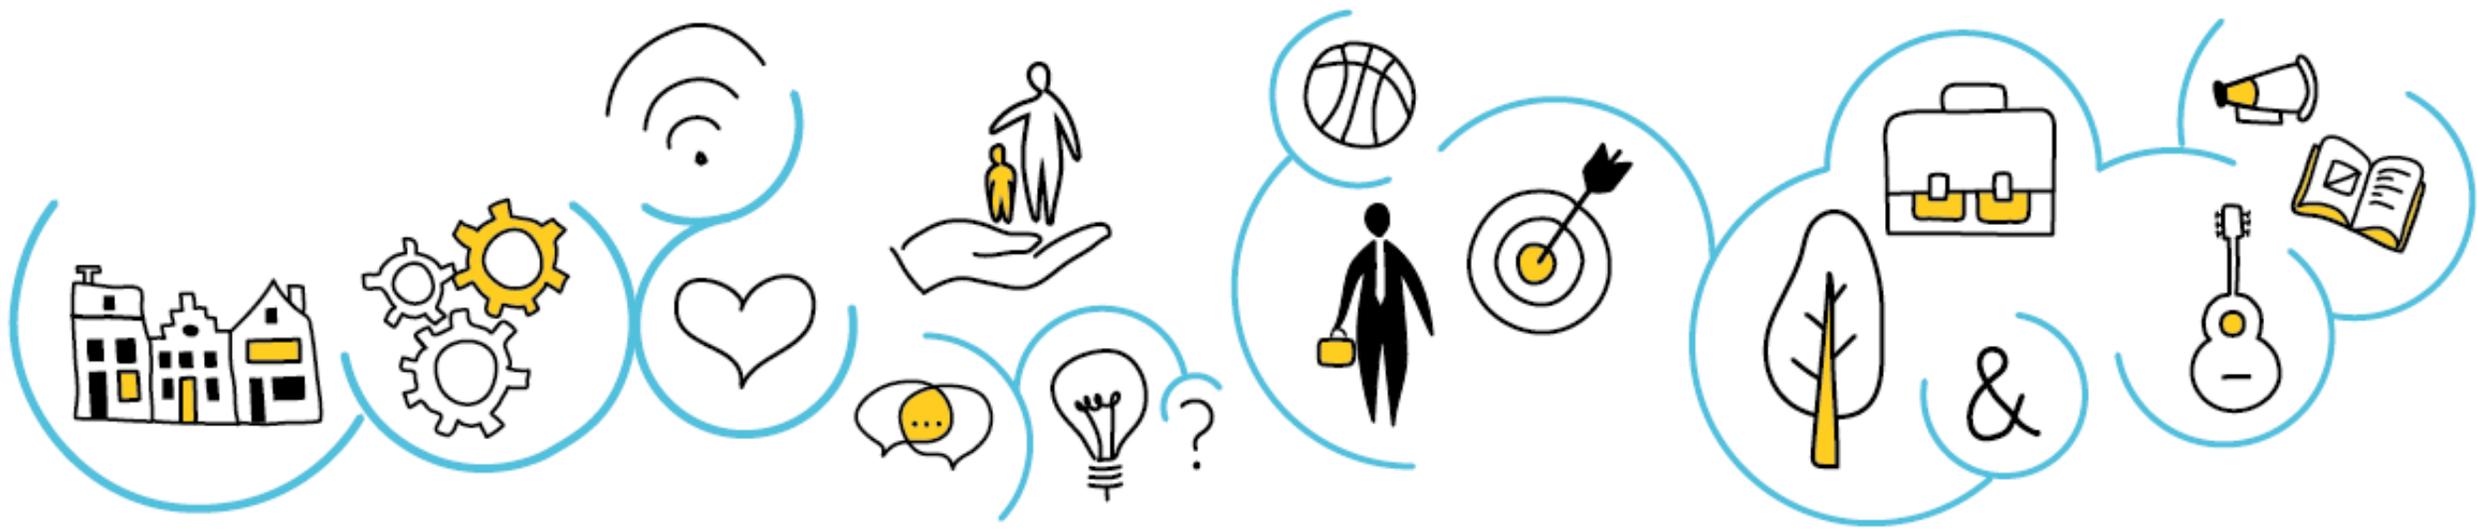

Do you feel...
Competent?
Involved?
Independent?

Learn from each other

What advice / recommendations / good practice can you share?

THANK YOU!
